

Air Combat Command NEWS SERVICE

Recent News

General Hornburg
stamps Thunderbirds
ready to fly

94th FS supports Nellis course

Operation Iron Thunder

ACC releases F-16
accident report

Warfighters reach
back to Langley ISR

Motorcycle helmet
saves airman's life

AF Climate Survey
kicks off

Headquarters
sustains operations during hurricane

ACC supply chain flows despite hurricane

Phase I (Lite) tests
Ellsworth

NCO gives gift of life

Maintainers capture Defense Department
award

ACC commander
honored by Tuskegee Airmen

SUBSCRIBE

Operation Iron Thunder

DYESS AIR FORCE BASE, Texas (ACCNS) -- Airman 1st Class Michael Doss from the 7th Aircraft Maintenance Squadron at Dyess Air Force Base, Texas, drains oil from a B-1 Lancer engine during Operation Iron Thunder, a record-breaking surge exercise here recently. Crews from the 7th Bomb Wing flew the Lancers in 114 flights in 68 hours resulting in 321 simulated bombing runs on targets. (Air Force photo by Airman 1st Class Ryan A Summers)

NEWS INDEX

Air Combat Command Public Affairs, United States Air Force, ACC/PAI